CHAPTER II THE DANGER OF NOT LOVING CHRIST If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha. - I Cor. xvi. 22. St. Paul in the verse at the head of this chapter says, If any man love not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema. Surely the if must be placed there to provide for a case only just possible. Can it be that there are any hearts so cold and hard as not to love the Lord Jesus Christ, whose life and character are confessedly the most beautiful that have ever existed Can there be any who do not feel love and sympathy for all His sorrows and ill-treatment which He received at the hands of sinful men He died for us while we were yet sinners, He exhibited in His life and death the highest possible example of love, so that St. John could G...
