Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . So often in our lives as Christians we are so very quick to become weary in well doing. We often times ask ourselves as did Jesus of the ten leprous men, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? If most of those whom God had done well towards did not return to thank him what do you think the majority of those we've done well towards will do? It just isn't in human nature to do good. Paul the apostle declared that in him that is his flesh dwelled no good thing. No matter how much well doing we do it seems as the saying goes No good deed goes unpunished! Usually the very individuals both inside and outside the church repay us evil for good. Some make promises to us that when all is well with them they will remember us huh? Well you no doubt can count on one hand the number of those who kept that promise. Often times we grow weary. However the Bible instruct Christians not to...
