D. 1909, beg to report as follows: The joint resolution requires the commission to Study and thoroughly investigate and examine into the matter of establishing an office to conduct the business of advancing money to the bonafide homesteaders of the territory on security of mortgage of the homestead land and improvements thereon at a low rate of interest. The joint resolution further provides that the commission shall consider ways and means whereby said office shall be managed and the business thereof conducted, and shall likewise consider the most practicable and. feasible ways of raising money by means of proper legislation for the purpose of meeting the full requirements of the office. Our duties, as above detailed, are confined to a consideration of the ways and means of aiding homesteaders by advances of money, but we have assumed that the spirit of the resolution would authorize consideration of other ways and means of securing the same results to the homesteaders, and we have taken the liberty of performing our duties from that standpoint, particularly as there are grave questions as to the constitutionality of a law providing for direct loans of public moneys top private individuals for private purposes, however laudable the purpose and however beneficial the result. We believe, however, that the same result can be obtained by methods, the legality of which cannot be assailed. About the...
