When her fourth boyfriend dies in a tragic car accident, she vows to never again get close to any man. This decision leads Shari down a road of promiscuity and after each meaningless encounter she would yearn for the stability and fulfillment that comes with being in a monogamous relationship. Karim Dawkins, a budding entrepreneur, has his sights set on Shari and refuses to take no for an answer. Shari likes him a lot but is terrified of getting involved. Will Shari give in and give love another chance and will she be the death of him?.
