

Letters to the Editor: What Is Your Government Doing to You! (Paperback)

By Carl Goodson

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 213 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Our country is facing issues that require everyone to make difficult decisions. The economy, taxation, pending legislation, illegal immigration and energy dependence are problems that require immediate solutions. The country's leaders are too politically motivated to make decisions based on the good of the country. Most of these politicians place their career aspirations ahead of all else. The recent Town Hall meetings have demonstrated the disgust most Americans feel toward their Representatives. The time has arrived for a dramatic change. The attitude of individual freedoms and the individual responsibility that accompanies these freedoms must be re-instilled in our society. This book puts forth, in common every day language, the legislation that is being considered by congress and the common sense responses to today's issues. Our founding fathers believed in a loose federation of sovereign states with a central government limited in its power. We MUST return to those beliefs. Carl Goodson was born in Montgomery, AL and has resided in Texas for 16 years with his wife Tina and son Randall. Mr. Goodson...
