This statue is always beautiful, but it is most beautiful in the early morning. In the third glorieta will soon be erected a bronze statue of Hidalgo, twenty feet in height; and in the fourth a statue of Juarez, sixteen feet high. These works have already been cast in Rome. On the south side of the Paseo, near the Columbus monument, are extensive bath-houses (Pane and Osorio). The Alberca Pane is the largest and finest in every respect. Here may be enjoyed shower, swim, Roman, Russian, and Turkish baths. This establishment runs its own street cars (the Circuito de Bafios), and conductors give a free ride to the bath-house to purchasers of bath tickets. As they were returning to the hotel the party took another look at the pretty play on and before the balcony. After lunch the Fair God was read aloud by the Captain...
