Not illustrated. 1915 Excerpt: .we watered and nursed it until it grew to be worth looking at and talking about. Then our Brothers planted, not a tiny seed, but a real tree that bore fruit and invited us to transplant our little nursling to their orchard. The dream is coming true and the prayers are being answered. Another dream is awaiting realization. That what will be needed to make this Hospital not only a thing of beauty, but a joy forever, shall be a free will offering from our Indiana O. E. S. Chapters. Masonic Home Day is rapidly drawing near. Let us make November fifth for the year 1915 memorable for generous giving for this object. Give not of necessity or grudgingly, for God loveth a cheerful giver. As we journey from point to point of our emblematic Star each lesson is one--not of self love or self aggrandizement, but of self abnegation. This is a family affair, so everybody has stock in this company. Our Queen Esther children have a small amount on deposit, their gifts of pennies given at our annual children s party, and we want the children of every Chapter to have the blessed privilege of sharing in this gift of love. Our girls have a society and they are asking for some special thing to clothe with life. They are planning to pay for the Star on our Hospital when its cost shall be ascertained. Then our Past Matrons Association are waiting and our...
